The email message received contains confidential information and is intended only for the individual named in the email. If you are not the named addressee, you should not disseminate, distribute or copy the email. Please notify the sender immediately by email if you have received the email by mistake and delete the email from your system. Email transmission cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error-free, as information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late or incomplete, or contain viruses. The sender, therefore, does not accept liability for any errors or omissions in the contents of the message which arises as a result of email transmission. If verification is required, please request a hard-copy version.

The message is confidential. It may also be privileged or otherwise protected by work-product immunity or other legal rules. If you have received it by mistake, please let OneLogix know by email reply and delete it from your system; you may not copy the message or disclose its contents to anyone. Please send OneLogix by fax any message containing deadlines, as incoming emails are not screened for response deadlines. The integrity and security of the message cannot be guaranteed on the Internet.

The email and any files transmitted with it are confidential and intended solely for the use of the individual or entity to whom they are addressed. If you have received the email in error, please notify the system manager. Please note that any views or opinions presented in the email are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the organization. Finally, the recipient should check the email and any attachments for the presence of viruses. The organization accepts no liability for any damage caused by any virus transmitted by the email.
